

Bosch solar energy ag karriere

Bosch Solar Energy is the solar wing of Germany's Robert Bosch GmbH. In 2008 the Robert Bosch Group purchased controlling shares of Germany's largest PV cell manufacturer, ersol Solar Energy AG (ersol was formed in 1997), with the change of name into Bosch Solar Energy AG in 2009. In 2009 Bosch Solar Energy also became majority shareholder ...

These "giant batteries", which Bosch is developing in cooperation with its industry partners, take excess energy from wind or solar parks, for instance, and either feed it into the grid or forward it to connected consumption points. Stationary energy storage systems can vary in capacity, from several hundred kilowatts to several megawatts.
