For Freedom Solar Power, Earth Day 2024 marked a milestone: we announced a landmark partnership with Stainless Structurals to build the Houston area's biggest commercial solar installation. As a native Texan, let me say it's very, very cool to be the biggest energy anything in Houston.

Most people tend to finance their solar panel system with $0 out of pocket. They also typically have payments that are below their energy savings starting from day one. Freedom Solar's cash customers typically see a full payback in five to 12 years, and an internal rate of return (IRR) that exceeds what the stock market has historically returned in the last 70 years.
